PLEASE READ THIS NOTES CAREFULLY BEFORE FILLING IN THE APPLICATION FORM

GENERAL:

Papua New Guinea welcomes tourists and visitors. Our country is a rapidly developing country and has a great need of skilled people to help in its development. This country has its own Immigration and Labour legislation, the administration of which is the responsibility of the Minister and the Papua New Guinea National Parliament.

All persons entering Papua New Guinea must have a valid permit and a passport to enter. Permit are issued only for the purpose and period stated in the application.

The main condition for issue of permits that are common to all applicants are that they must have accommodation available, be not adversely recorded from a security point of view, be of good character, and be physically and mentally healthy.

An entry permit may be cancelled at any time

TOURIST/VISITOR

Tourists and visitors can obtain entry permits for up to two months, provided they satisfy the general conditions mention above and

- (a) Have a return or onward airline ticket to a destination beyond Papua New Guinea and authority to enter therein;
- (b) Have funds to maintain themselves (K300.00 a month) or will be maintain by relatives;
- (c) They do not engage in any form of employment whether paid or unpaid; and
- (d) Any other conditions that may be imposed on arrival.

OTHER NON-WORKING ENTRANTS

Persons entering for entertainment, research, filming, journalism, aid or religious purposes must state the

ENTRY FOR EMPLOYMENT

Papua New Guinea regulates entry of non-citizens seeking employment in the country.

Under the Employment of Non-Citizens Act 2007, which is administered by the Department of Labour and Industrial Relations, a non-citizen cannot engage in any form of employment whether paid or unpaid, unless prior approval is given. Further information may be found online at <http://www.workpermits.gov.pg/>

A non-citizen, who is employed or accepts employment without approval from the Department of Labour and Industrial Relations may have their visa cancelled and be liable for prosecution and deportation. Regular inspections are carried out by inspectors under the Act in Papua New Guinea to ensure these requirements are observed.

WARNING:

Persons who do not observe the following requirements are liable to heavy penalties under Papua New Guinea Immigration Law.

- 1) Entry permit holders must ensure that they always have a valid permit and passport. Holders of expired or cancelled entry permits are prohibited immigrants and may be deported.
- 2) The Migration Act 1978 lays down penalties for persons who deliver or otherwise furnish for official purposes of the government, documents containing information or statements that are false or misleading.
